MURDER THE CHARGE

THE PURERAL OF THE VICTIM OF LANGSTON'S SHOT.

Indignation Among the Colored People-Dinwiddie Circuit Court-The Appreaching Musical Festival.

dence of the Richmond Dispatch. PETERSBURG, April 7, 1887.

The funeral of John H. Ruffin, who was shot and killed by Frank M. Langston, took place from the First Baptist (colored) church this afternoon, and (colored) church this afternoon, and was attended by an immense crowd. The killing of kuffin, under the circumstances as developed before the coroner's jury, has created a feeling of profound indignation among the colored people, who declare that the shooting had no provocation, and, indeed, no evidence was elicited before the coroner's jury to show that there was any provocation for the taking of a man's life on the mere suspicion of the theft of a pipe.

The prisoner Langston will be because the Mayor's Court to-mortion of the same.

A great crowd is in attendance. The prisoner is quite a handsome man, and from appearances does not fully realize the dangerous position he occupies. The trial will be a long one. The evidence points strongly to Ridenour as the murderer. At the time of adjournment testimony was being given with regard to the finding a short distance from the body of a note for $75 given to Eray by Ridenour. theft of a pipe.

The prisoner Langston will be brought into the Mayor's Court to-mor-rew morning for a preliminary hearing. Whether or not examination will be whether or not examination will be had is not known, the supposition being expressed that it may be waived.

It is understood that the contract for building Mr. David Dunlop's new to-bacco-factory has been awarded to Mr. W. J. Chappell, of this city, at a cost of about $41,000. It is said that the building, which is to be legated on the milding, which is to be located on the site of the old Petersburg Iron-Works, on Old street, is to be five stories in height, and to be made fire-proof. It will be finished by the early fall.

The Circuit Court of Nottoway county—Judge Hancock presiding—has been in session during the week, with a considerable docket to be disposed of.

The Circuit Court of Dinwiddie, which was to have commenced to-day, has been postponed until next Monday, for the reason that Judge Hancock could not get through in time to open Din-widdie court before that time.

Mr. Richard S. Boykin and bride, of Southampton county, have gone on a bridal trip to Florida. There is a rumor on the street of the probable early building of a magnifi-cent hotel in this city by northern capi-talists, but nothing definite can be as-certained as to the truth of the report.

The next annual musical festival of the musical associations of Virginia and North Carolina will be held in this city on May 10th and 13th inclusive. The festival will embrace seven brilliant concerts, with eminent vocal and in-strumental soloists and a picked orches-tra of thirty-five artists to assist. The chorus on the occasion will number between 250 and 300 trained voices from the various associations of the two States. One of the concerts of the festival will be given by a chorus of about 300 children, whose training has been in progress for some time past. This festival of music is anticipated with From the best information to be gained it is learned that the fruit in this section has not yet been killed. There was no freeze during the late twodays' snow, and there has been none ROBIN ADATE.

POWHATAN COUNTY.

Burning of a Landmark-The Crops, &c.

dence of the Richmond Dispatch. POWHATAN, April 6, 1887.
One of the old landmarks of our county is gone. A spark, fanned by the March winds, last week destroyed

"Fairfield," one of the oldest residences of the county. This was the mansion of the Rev. Christopher Macrae, to which he removed from thize with the Revolution, and taken from his house at the Old Glebe by some violent young men, tied to a pine tree near the house—the of which still stands and was called the Parson's Pine-and severely whipped. He brought suit against them in the County Court of Cumberland for the assault and battery, and through the strong appeals of his counsel, Patrick Henry, 1-covered exemplary damages. A full account of the old parson, who, despite his Toryism (which was but natural), was a good man and an evangelical and sincere Christian minister, is given by Bishop Meade in his "Old Churches and Families of Virginia." A grandson of Par-son Macrae now lives in less than a mile from the Parson's Pine. Colonel John H. Macrae, who resided during his youth and early life in the South and West, has differed from his grandfather in his denomination and politics, as, not being an Episcopalian and a Tory, he is a prominent Baptist and Democrat, and is the moderator of the James-River Baptist Association. Our County Court March term has just passed. One felony was prose-cuted to conviction and another was not. There was a large attendance, greatly enlivened by the presence of the various candidates, who treated freely, the consequence of which was several animated fights. Our farmers, discouraged by the low price of tobacco and the failure of Congress to remove the tax, are not in-clined to make their usual crop. The wheat in the county looks worse than the oldest inhabitant remembers at this season of the year. Some attribute it to the winter weather, others to the bad seed raised last year. The fact is that from present appearances there will be a smaller crop of wheat made this year than ever before. Another source of discouragement is the loss of all the early fruits and vegetables by the suddless we seed add ways which we are den recent cold waves, which we are unable to guard against, as the predic-tion of the weather prophet at Wash-ington and the cold wave itself reach

End of a Long Trial-Coyner Insaue.

The long-pending case in the Augusta County Court of the Commonwealth against T. J. S. Coyner, for killing Montezuma Brown, on the Fair-Grounds near this city, on the 15th October, 1885, was brought to a close yesterday afternoon. This was the second trial, and occupied one week in thorough investigation. The question to be decided was the sanity of the prisoner at this time and at the time the murder was committed. The jury, after a few minutes' absence, returned with a verdict that Coyner was insane now and insane on the 15th of October, 1885. Judge Stout will enter the judgment this morning, which places APRIL 7, 1887. judgment this morning, which places Coyner in an insane asylum. The jury at the first trial found him insane at that time but sane at the time of the Winchester, Va., April 7.—The trial of Ridenour, charged with the murder of Young Bray, began to-day. The witnesses examined this afternoon testified principally to the finding of the body secreted under leaves in the woods and the identification of the same.

OLD-FASHIONED MORMONS. The "Josephites" Celebrate the Recovery of the Temple at Kirtland, Ohio. A Cleveland special says: The old temple of the Latter-Day Saints of Jesus Christ, or the original Mormons, in the little town of Kirtland, thirty miles from here, is again the meeting-place of Mormons. It was built by Joseph Smith, the martyr, and Sidney Ryney, translator of the Mormon Bible, in 1834, but in 1844, when the Mormons were divided, the fell into the hands of the Utah branch. the polygamists, who seceded from the original Church. For years a fierce war was waged in the courts for pos-session of the building, but it was finally given to the reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-day Saints. The old temple was to-day formally taken possession of by the monogamist branch of the Church. The members of this branch of Mornionism are known as Josephites from their adherence to the dectrines of Joseph Smith. Joseph Smith, Jr., a son of the founder of the Church, is the present presiding officer.

There are present at Kirtland about one hundred delegates, representing every Josephite society in the country.

The conference will continue eight days, and matters of great importance are expected to come up for settlement. The exact position of the Josephites toward the Utah Church will be defined and the question of polygamy will be thoroughly discussed. At to-day's con-ference there were no representatives of the Utah Church, but several delegates from Salt Lake City are expected, who will be allowed a hearing. The Church secretary and recorder sub mitted an exhaustive report showing the condition of the Church. Nine years ago there were 17,928 members of the re-Macrae, to which he removed from Cumberland county. He was the par-son of Littleton parish, Cumberland county in colonial times, and did not year 1,710 members were baptized, 157 were lost by expulsion, and 317 by death, leaving a net gain of 1,306 mem-bers. Iowa has the largest number of saints, 4,227, and Missouri comes next with 2.085. Virginia is at the foot of the column with only six members, while Utab, the hotbed of Mormonism, has only 496 Josephites. Beside the membership in the United States, Austhis year, and about $30,000 in cash has been received in contributions from members.

Perishing Four Hundred Yards from Land.

A Beston telegram says: John Olsen, a Norwegian sailor, was on board the schooner J. H. Eels, of Rockport, Me., when sho was wrecked some three weeks ago on Cape Cod, two and a half miles south of Nauset light. He has been in the Marine Hospital since the disaster, and came to this city at the request of the agent of the vessel. He makes serious charges against the members of the life-saying crew at the scene of the wreck. "We were bound from Perth Amboy

"We were bound from Perta Amboy to Boston," he said, "and when off Nauset light found that the vessel was leaking badly. In a blinding snowstorm and a heavy sea the vessel had strained herself, and was threatening to sink at any moment. The only thing struck about 9 o'clock in the morning. The sea was then breaking over us, and we were driven to the rigging. There were four of us. The cold was intense, and we had to pound each other to keep from freezing to death. The crew of the life-saving station saw us about half an hour after we struck, and put out in a boat to save us. They came within fifty feet of us, and, without speaking or attempting to save us, turned around and went back.

The sea was quite smooth then, and there was no reason in the world why they could not have saved us all. All day long we clung to the rigging, our hands and feet almost frozen. We saw the crowds of people on the shore run-ning back and forth, and the life-saving crew standing there watching us. At midnight one of our party died, and at about 3 in the morning another gave up and was washed overboard. At 80 clock the next morning a tugboat sighted us and headed for us. Four men put out in a small boat, not more than half as large as the lifeboat belonging to the station, rowed up to the wreck, and took us on board. Our hands and feet were frozen. We were only about four hun-dred yards from the shore, and if the life-saving crew had been men of any pluck they might have had us all off in two hours after we struck."

The men at the life-saving station sa to put about on account of the heavy sea. The assistant inspector of life-saving stations has been investigating the matter, and says that the sailors could not be rescued by the life crew.

New York, April 7.—General Thomas W. Conway, secretary of the State Temperance League of New York, and organizer of the Temperance Insurance Association of New York, died suddenly last evening after returning from the Baptist Mission church, near East New York, from heart-disease. He had just finished devotional exercises and was escorting his wife, who had been taken sick in church, to her home in Brooklyn, when he was stricken down, and in less than twenty minutes was a corpse. He was forty-eight years of age, and of full habit. He was well known in the South, particularly at New Orleans, during reconstruction times.

Prevents Another Burning-The Fight on Camden.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

CHARLESTON, W. VA., April 7.—This morning the house of Jacob Lutz, who resides in the west end of this city, was burned, together with the furniture contained in it. The fire from this building ignited four other houses, the property of L. M. Williams, B. B. Sprigg, J. F. Savage, and D. D. Farrell—all of which were burned. The loss is estimated at $40,000. None of the houses were insured.

Last night the office of the president of the Kanawha-Valley Bank was set on fire by a coal rolling from the grate to the floor; but the fire was discovered by Mr. E. L. Boggs, who has rooms over the bank, and by the use of a hand-hose he succeeded in extinguishing it. The damage will be $100. This after noon fire was discovered in a building owned by J. R. Balderidge and occu-pied by Abe Petty, but was extinguish-ed, after damaging the building to the amount of $100. The building is insured in the Phœnix Company of Brooklyn. The Democrats of Hampshire county met in mass-meeting at Romney Monday and adopted resolutions approving of the course pursued by Senator Flournoy and Delegate Chipley, representatives from that county in the Legislation of the resolution of the gislature, in their opposition to the re-election of Senstor Camden, and calling on the other counties of the State

TO THE HOLDERS OF VIRGINIA

We are authorized by the Council of Foreign Bondholders to call the attention of holders of Virginia consols and 10-40's to the fact that that the English bondholders are endeavoring, through the instrumentality of the Council of Foreign Bondholders, to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the debt of Virginia. With this object in view the English bondholders have, to a large extent, agreed to pool their bonds, and have authorized the Council of Foreign Bondholders to act for them in the negotiations which are about to be had between a commission sent out from London and a committee appointed by the Legislature of Virginia. It is most desirable that all holders of Virginia bonds, both at home and abroad, should unite in the effort to effect an early settlement of the State debt. To better accomplish this object the Council of Foreign Bondholders earnestly request the holders of Virginia bonds in America to co-operate with them and to forward to ourselves their names and addresses, stating the amount of bonds held, at as early a day as pessible.

We will be gind to furnish copies of the plan adopted by the English bondholders for pooling their bonds at London, and to give any other information that may be desired.
